The revision may be challenged only on grounds that the revision results in a material change to a rule. A challenge shall be made in writing, and delivered to the chair of the commission prior to the end of the notice period. If no challenge is made, the revision will take effect without further action. If the revision is challenged, the revision may not take effect without the approval of the commission.

Notice of intent to suspend or terminate shall be given by the commission to the governor, the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state's legislature, and each of the member states.

§1310.1. Interstate Medical Licensure Compact; adoption

The Interstate Medical Licensure Compact is hereby recognized and enacted into law and entered into by this state with all states legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

SECTION 1. PURPOSE

In order to strengthen access to health care, and in recognition of the advances in the delivery of health care, the member states of the Interstate Medical Licensure Compact have allied in common purpose to develop a comprehensive process that complements the existing licensing and regulatory authority of state medical boards, provides a streamlined process that allows physicians to become licensed in multiple states, thereby enhancing the portability of a medical license and ensuring the safety of patients. The compact creates another pathway for licensing and does not otherwise change a state's existing medical practice act. The compact also adopts the prevailing standard for licensure and affirms that the practice of medicine occurs where the patient is located at the time of the physician-patient encounter, and therefore, requires the physician to be under the jurisdiction of the state medical board where the patient is located, rather than the state in which the patient was treated.

The Interstate Medical Licensure Compact shall thereby be deemed to impose an adverse action against a license to practice medicine in that state issued to a physician through the procedures in the compact.

A majority of commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, unless a larger quorum is required by the bylaws of the interstate commission. (j) The interstate commission shall make its information and official records, except public information, and its staff records, public. The executive director shall have the power to act on behalf of the interstate commission, except with the exception of rulemaking, during periods when the interstate commission is not in session. When acting on behalf of the interstate commission, the executive director shall oversee the administration of the compact including enforcement and compliance with the provisions of the compact, its bylaws and rules, and such duties and responsibilities as the executive director may specify.

(k) The interstate commission shall establish other committees for governance and administration of the compact.

SECTION 12. POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION and wanton misconduct on the part of such person.

(g) To the extent not covered by the state involved, member state, or the inherent authority of the interstate commission, the rules and bylaws of the interstate commission shall be held harmless in the amount of a settlement or judgment, including attorney’s fees and costs, obtained against such persons arising out of any actual or alleged act, error, or omission that occurred within the scope of the interstate commission employment, duties, or responsibilities, that such person has a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of interstate commission employment, duties, or responsibilities, provided that the actual or alleged act, error, or omission did not result from intentional or willful and wanton misconduct on the part of such person.

SECTION 15. RULEMAKING FUNCTIONS OF THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION
(a) The interstate commission shall promulgate reasonable rules in order to effectively and efficiently achieve the purpose of the compact. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the interstate commission exercises its rulemaking authority in a manner that is beyond the scope of the powers granted hereunder, or the powers granted hereunder, then such an action by the interstate commission shall be invalid and have no force or effect.
(b) Rules deemed appropriate for the operations of the interstate commission shall be made pursuant to a rulemaking process that substantially conforms to the “Model State Administrative Procedure Act” of 2010, and subsequent amendments thereto.
(c) Not later than thirty days after a rule is promulgated, any person may file a petition for judicial review of the rule in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the interstate commission has its principal offices, provided that the filing of such a petition shall not stay or otherwise prevent the rule from becoming effective unless the court finds that the petitioner has a substantial likelihood of success. The court shall give definite and prompt action on the petition and make such rules as shall apply to the filing and disposition of the petition. If the court finds the rule to be unlawful, the court shall declare the rule invalid and have no force or effect.

SECTION 16. OVERSIGHT OF INTERSTATE COMPACT (a) The executive branch of the federal, state, or local government in each member state shall enforce the compact and shall take all actions necessary and appropriate to effectuate the compact’s purposes and intent. The provisions of the compact and the rules promulgated hereunder shall have standing as state laws and shall not override existing state authority to regulate the practice of medicine.
(b) All courts shall take judicial notice of the compact and the rules in any judicial or administrative proceeding in a member state pertaining to the subject matter of the compact which may affect the powers, responsibilities or action of the interstate commission.
(c) The interstate commission shall be entitled to receive all services of process in any such proceeding, and shall have standing to intervene in the proceeding for all purposes. Failure to provide service of process to the interstate commission shall render a judgment or order void as to the interstate commission, the compact, or promulgated rules.

SECTION 17. ENFORCEMENT OF INTERSTATE COMPACT
(a) The interstate commission, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, shall enforce the provisions and rules of the compact.
(b) The interstate commission may, by majority vote of the commissioners, initiate legal action in the United States Court for the District of Columbia, or, at the discretion of the interstate commission, in the federal district where the interstate commission has its principal offices, to enforce compliance with the compact and rules. The action may be brought against a member state in default.
Relief sought may include injunctive relief and damages. In the event judicial enforcement is necessary, the prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation including reasonable attorneys’ fees.
(c) The remedies herein shall not be the exclusive remedies of the interstate commission. The interstate commission may avail itself of any other remedies available under state law or regulation of a profession.

SECTION 18. DEFAULT PROCEDURES
(a) The grounds for default include, but are not limited to, failure of a member state to perform such obligations or responsibilities imposed upon it by the compact, or the rules and bylaws of the interstate commission promulgated under the compact.
(b) If the interstate commission determines that a member state has defaulted in the performance of its obligations or responsibilities under the compact, or the bylaws or promulgated rules, the interstate commission shall:
(1) Provide written notice to the defaulting state and other member states, of the default during the default period, and any action taken by the interstate commission. The interstate commission shall specify the conditions by which the defaulting state must cure its default; and
(2) Provide remedial training and specific technical assistance regarding the default.
(c) If the defaulting state fails to cure the default, the defaulting state shall be terminated from the compact upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the commissioners and all rights, privileges, and benefits conferred by the compact shall terminate on the effective date of termination. A cure of the default does not relieve the defaulting state of obligations or liabilities incurred during the period of the default.
(d) Termination of membership in the compact shall be imposed only after all other means of securing compliance have been exhausted. Notice of intent to terminate shall be given by the interstate commission to the governor of the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state’s legislature, and each of the member states.
(e) The interstate commission shall establish rules and procedures to address licenses and physicians that are materially impacted by the termination of a member state, or the withdrawal of a member state.
(f) The member state which has been terminated is responsible for all due, obligations, and liabilities incurred through the effective date of termination including obligations, the performance of which extends beyond the effective date of termination.
(g) The interstate commission shall not bear any costs relating to any state that has been found to be in default or which has been terminated from the compact.
(h) Unless otherwise mutually agreed upon in writing between the interstate commission and the defaulting state.

SECTION 19. DISPUTE RESOLUTION state, to resolve disputes which are subject to the compact and which may arise among member states or member boards.

state.
(c) The governors of non-member states, or their designees, shall be invited to participate in the activities of the interstate commission on a non-voting basis prior to adoption of the compact by all states.

SECTION 21. WITHDRAWAL upon each and every member state; provided that a member state may withdraw from the compact by specifically repealing the statute which enacted the compact into law.

(b) Withdrawal from the compact shall be by the enactment of a statute repealing the same, but shall not take effect until one year after the effective date of such statute and until written notice of the withdrawal has been given by the withdrawing state to the governor of each other member state.
(c) The withdrawing state shall simultaneously notify the chairperson of the interstate commission in writing upon the introduction of legislation repealing the compact in the withdrawing state.
(d) The interstate commission shall notify the other member states of the withdrawing state’s intent to withdraw within sixty days of its receipt of notice provided under subsection (c).
(e) The withdrawing state is responsible for all dues, obligations and liabilities incurred through the effective date of withdrawal, including obligations, the performance of which extend beyond the effective date of withdrawal.
(f) The withdrawing state may appeal the action of the interstate commission by petitioning the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or the federal district of the withdrawing state’s jurisdiction. The withdrawing state shall be entitled to receive all services of process in any such proceeding, and shall have standing to intervene in the proceeding for all purposes. Failure to provide service of process to the interstate commission shall render a judgment or order void as to the interstate commission, the compact, or promulgated rules.

SECTION 22. DISSOLUTION
(a) The compact shall dissolve effective upon the date of the withdrawal or default of the member state which reduces the membership of the compact to one member state.
(b) Upon the dissolution of the compact, the compact becomes null and void and shall be of no further force or effect, and the business and affairs of the interstate commission shall be concluded, and surplus funds shall be distributed in accordance with the bylaws.

SECTION 23. SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION
(a) The provisions of the compact shall be severable, and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision is deemed unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall be enforceable.
(b) The provisions of the compact shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes.
(c) Nothing in the compact shall be construed to prohibit the applicability of other interstate compacts to which the member states are members.

SECTION 24. BINDING EFFECT OF COMPACT AND OTHER LAWS state that is not inconsistent with the compact.

The authority shall have power, from time to time, and subject to agreements with the holders of its revenue bonds and with the approval of the State Bond Commission, to issue renewal notes; to provide for an effective date; and to provide for related matters.

(3) Bond resolution, trust agreements, and contracts. The authority shall authorize revenue bonds by one or more resolutions executed by the secretary of the Department of Transportation and Development and an authorized officer of the board of commissioners and approved by the State Bond Commission. Any revenue bonds issued pursuant to this Section also may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the authority and one or more corporate trustees or fiscal agents, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without this state. Any resolution authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds shall be published one time in the official journal of the state; however, it shall not be necessary to publish any exhibits to such the resolution if the same are available for public inspection and such this fact is stated in the publication. For thirty days after the date of publication, any person in interest may contest the legality of the resolution, any provision of the revenue bonds to be issued pursuant to it, the provisions therein made for the security and payment of the revenue bonds, and the validity of all other provisions and proceedings relating to the authorization and issuance of such the bonds. After that time, no person may contest the regularity, formality, legality, or effectiveness of the resolution, any provision of the revenue bonds to be issued pursuant to it, the provisions for the security and payment of the revenue bonds, and the validity of all other provisions and proceedings relating to their authorization and issuance, for any cause whatsoever. Thereafter, it shall be conclusively presumed that the revenue bonds and that every legal remedy for the issuance of the revenue bonds has been complied with. No court shall have authority to inquire into any of these matters after the thirty days.
